Lesson 1 - 2

GLH: 2

Learning Outcome E1

Establish the mission statement for the project

- A clear and concise statement that outlines the project mission
- Reference to research into existing mission statements
- Appropriate use of language

Student Activity	Teacher Guidance
Students should develop a company mission statement. They should research existing examples from well established companies/ brands in building design. Students should encapsulate their own values and aspirations for the project into a short statement.	In the project report, students should make reference to their vision as a design company; come up with a great name for their organisation to let a client know their mission for the project.
